Van Wert, Ohio

Mr. L. C. Corbett
Bureau of Plant Industry
Washington, D. C.

Aug. 24, 1927

Dear Mr. Corbett:

I wish that everyone of my Iris customers could spend a little time with my men, as they are busily engaged in moving the plantings in my Van Wert garden to my farm five miles west on the Lincoln Highway. Each day sees an accumulation of a few varieties for which I do not have planting space, and I know that my customers who wish good Irises for mass and border plantings can find real bargains in this surplus.

Look up the following varieties in any Iris catalog and note the exceptional values offered in this bargain list:

IRISES WHICH SELL AT 75¢ EACH

ZUA, ZOUAVE, DRAKE, TUVISIE and TURCO

5 roots of any one of these varieties at 20¢ each

10 roots of any one of these varieties at 15¢ each

25 roots of any one of these varieties at 12¢ each

50 roots of any one of these varieties at 10¢ each

IRISES WHICH SELL AT 35¢ EACH

LOHENGRIN, DAWN, POCAHONTAS, W. F. CHRISTMAN, and WINDHAM

5 roots of any one of these varieties at 12¢ each

10 roots of any one of these varieties at 10¢ each

25 roots of any one of these varieties at 8¢ each

50 roots of any one of these varieties at 6¢ each.

Orders from this list will not be accepted after ten days from the date of this letter. Other surplus lists will be issued from time to time. If you are interested, ask for them.

If your order for any variety is received after my surplus is exhausted your remittance will be promptly returned. On these surplus offers my terms are cash with order, transportation charges to be paid by the purchaser.

Yours very truly,

Lee R Bonnewitz
